

Cultural activities carried out by the French Institute of Cambodia

As part of the “Gargantuesque” exhibition, the French Institute of Cambodia offers several activities on the themes of comics, design, cuisine and taste.

This exhibition is dedicated to gastronomy. Gastronomy is a symbol of know-how, tradition and art of living, which transcends cultural borders.

The “Gargantuesque” season explores the delights of cuisine through the artists’ eyes. Comic book pages merge with design to create savoury experience..

Exhibit tour

Through a guided tour of the “Gargantuesque” exhibition, visitors will discover Benoît Peeters’ relationship with with cooking thanks to his comics Comme un chef. The art of the table will also be showcased through the design creations of Gregory Granados. This exhibition offer us numerous reflection possibilities on the waywe consider our nutrition. Art and food come together to inspire, amaze and awaken passions. We promise you an unforgettable experience, where each bite is a story and each work of art an invitation to discover the pleasures of the table.
